

Blueberry Brooke's

An Artist's Escape

IMAGINE THE LONG DAYS OF MIDSUMMER, the bright grass bending in the neighboring fields, the air sweet with the heavy blooms of the garden flowers, and the morning sun at your window promising a day as wide as the view. Come to Blueberry Brooke, where there is time enough to skip stones in the sun brindled pools of the creek and time to sketch the wildflowers along the many paths. Take a basket there and return through bushes jeweled with sun sweetened blueberries. Enjoy them with a gourmet breakfast on the veranda followed by a long soak in the tub. The day is yours, as is use of the schoolhouse, ample with workspace and natural light, and stocked with all you might need to collage, paint, draw, stamp, journal and otherwise delight, nurture or replenish your creative spirit. Perfect for anyone who loves making things and groups of artists looking for a weekend to devote to themselves and their craft, this weekend retreat combines the relaxed luxury of a holiday in the countryside, with an idyllic and inspiring setting, and the too rare joy of your own open studio.
