

GRATITUDE & THE ART OF ASSEMBLAGE

10:00 - 4:30 PM
SATURDAY,
SEPTEMBER 29TH, 2012

The things that we collect and are drawn to are tokens of who we have been and what we want to become. The art of assemblage is the art of three dimensional collage using these objects and images.

Whether we assemble an altar to an aim or longing, inscribe words into wood to commemorate an event, or follow the less narrative impulses of color and texture, assemblage has a way of sorting out and making sense of whatever we are moving through.

Dig out that box of stuff you don't know what to do with but cannot seem to part with. In this workshop, guests will use the articles they have collected, whether they are objects from their daily life or images from their dreams, to transform, renew and honor their journeys.

This is a workshop for those who want to explore a new level of journaling. It is for veteran and beginning artists of every medium, and anyone interested in a process as soulful as it is playful and as easy as it is powerful.

Guests should come with an intention for their assemblage and bring a collection of objects and images which speak to that intention.
